IN MEMORIAM

MEMORY – Jesse Ferguson who passed away March 6, 1969

God hath not promised.
We shall not know,
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe.
He hath not told us we shall not bear many a burden – many a tear.
But we have grace for the trials, help from above.
Unfailing sympathy, undying love.
Greatly missed–Wife, Children and Grandchildren. 3-9-1p

IN LOVING MEMORY of my husband, Adolphus R. Cyrus, who passed away nine years ago, March 22, 1963.

Day by day nine years have passed
Since God called you away
And day by day we miss you more
Than words can ever say.

You bid no one a last farewell
You said goodbye to none
Your loving heart had ceased to beat
Before we knew you were gone–

Little did we know when dawned that morning
What sorrow the day would bring
The end was sudden, the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear.

You went the way God had planned
The way you hoped your life would end,
Our hearts still ache in lonely grief
For we have lost our dearest friend.
God gave us strength to bear it
And courage to meet the blow
But what it meant to lose you, Adolphus
This world will never know.
Sadly missed by wife, Margaret, children and grandchildren. 3-9-1t

METHODISTS TO DEDICATE NEW CHURCH MARCH 19

Those barefoot boys in the photo above are now in their late 40's; the young adults pictured may be great-grandmothers for this is a picture of Memorial Methodist Sunday School, Church Street, Appomattox, taken on October 4, 1925. How many do you recognize? For members and friends of Memorial United Methodist Church Sunday, March 19, 1972 will be a memorable occasion as they unite to dedicate their new church. All indebtedness, more than $150,000, has been paid during the ten years the congregation has been worshiping in the new Church on Court Street. Special services will begin at 10:45 a.m. March 19, with the public invited to hear special singing by the three church choirs, an address by the Reverend J. W. Mast, District Superintendent and a service of dedication led by Mr. Mast and R. A. Sears, representing the building committee. The Rev. A. L. Eastman is minister.

"DAMES' ANCHOR AT BARN

Dames at Sea, the long run musical hit that genially macks, but often improves on, the hit songs of the 1930's, cast anchor at The Barn Dinner Theater, 6655 Airport Rd., Roanoke, on March 1 for a four week run.

Dames at Sea is a jolly take-off on the corney elements that everyone thought were such great entertainment in the 1930's, as brought to us by the Late Show reruns of that decade's movies. It is also the musical that both admires and satinizes those Busby Berkely movie entravaganzas of the 30's

Dames at Sea is not only suitable, but highly recommended, for the entire family.

For reservations call 362-3333 or write Barn Dinner Theater, 6655 Airport Road, Roanoke, Va. 24012.

Mount Vernon has been preserved as a patriotic shrine in Virginia by the Mount Vernon Ladies Association since 1853.
